PARTY BATTLE

Has Leichhardt Council begun to develop into a proving ground where its members battle for party supremacy, or has it become a hotbed of intrigue where one section or the other is obsessed with the desire to discredit each other?

One thing is absolutely sure: If they continue in their present way, they will destroy the function-ing of Council and bring about their own downfall.

The result of their self - destruction will be the appointment of an administrator. This happened once before. but for far different reasons.

You cannot expect this municipality, which is far larger than ever before, to be run efficiently if you have within the Council one section or the other creating problems

Matters requiring attention here are great in number and reat in importance or greater than the aims of any political

There are dozens of things waiting to be done so that the leeway can be picked up, for it is as plain as the nose on your face that in the last 10 years this area has fallen back so far that it will take a miracle to rejuvenate it. Neither this Council nor any other can perform miracles, but at least there should be a stop to petty differences. No indi-vidual problem should be blown up out of proportion in order to obtain publicity, nor should Council in general allow themselves to arrive at a point where police are necessary to restore order. There is a real crisis likely because of party differences. Would it be wise to apply now for another election, or get on with the job of rehabilitating this area?

RESIDENT COMMITT GLEBE HOME FOR AGED MEN

Strongly object to the dismissal of their Manager, Mr. L. J. Campbell.

(Mr. Campbell has administered the Home for the past 12 months. The Repatriation Department's recent reclassification of the Home from "a home for derelicts to A1 accommodation" speaks for itself. Mrs. Campbell, a qualified nurse, opened an infirmary to care for the sick and infirm. Her seven-days-a-week, sometimes 20-hour days, are voluntary. She does not receive one cent from the Board of Management.)

Are dissatisfied with the Board of Management. The Fraud Squad is now investigating certain conduct at the Home.

(This investigation was initiated by Mr. Campbell in the interests of the residents.)

The resident committee, in conjunction with Mr. Campbell, are more than qualified to administer THEIR home on a self-supporting basis, free from political and religious interference.

(The Board of Management, according to the Mayor of Leichhardt, Alderman Rodwell, lost $5000 in a "few months". The resident committee at present is operating on a $500-a-month income excess.)

Appeal to all people of integrity in the Leichhardt Municipality to assist us in our just cause by attending Leichhardt Council Meeting on Wednesday, April 30, starting at 8 p.m.

(The question of the Glebe Home for Aged Men has been listed for discussion by Council for the past few months. but each time Aldermen have successfully blocked all moves for such a discussion.)
