Rules For Balmain Gardening Contest

The week-end of November 7-8 has been selected by The Balmain Association as the time for judging of entries in its garden competition, details of which are now available. Closing date for entries—which will be free—will be October 31, and judging will take place a week later.

The competition will be open to any resident or premises, public park and garden in Balmain, Balmain East, Birchgrove and Rozelle, in the area situated on the northern side of Victoria Road.

An entry form will shortly be available from The Balmain Association.

REFRESHER FOR NURSES

A refresher course entitled "Back to Nursing" will be held by the N.S.W. College of Nursing from October 26.

Of one week's duration, it will cover latest trends in nursing education, medicine, surgery, midwifery and intensive care.

With the increasing opportunities available in hospitals for qualified nurses, the course provides the means whereby trained nurses who have been away from nursing for a time may return to their chosen profession.

Applications for admission to the course should be made to the Principal, N.S.W. College of Nursing, Allen Street, Glebe.

tion, and will also be published in "The Link". This should be completed and forwarded to Garden Competition, C/-The Balmain Association, P.O. Box 57, Balmain.

The Association will also issue a pamphlet giving details of the competition.

Sections

There will be five sections:

Section 1: Private gardens, either in front of or behind homes, in two sub-sections: (a) More than 600 sq. feet in area; (b) less than 600 sq. ft.

Section 2: Paved courtyards, any size. (The idea is to cater for home areas without any definite garden space, other perhaps than a small border section. Pot plants would be the main feature of such a garden.)

Section 3: Miscellaneous. (This category would cover such displays as window boxes, balcony gardens, ferneries, treatment of laneways, easements, etc., to cater for residents without garden room and who do not qualify elsewhere.)

Section 4: Industrial areas and home unit areas whose gardens are visible to passers-by.

Section 5: Public parks and gardens.

In the cases of Sections 4 and 5 the judges will inspect all areas independently and will make awards for display of civic improvement, attention to footpaths and surrounds, general neatness, etc., as well as for actual garden displays.

No entries will be required for Sections 4 and 5, although advice from managements would be appreciated.

Prizes

Prizes will be an engraved plaque to the winner of each section, plus a cash prize (to be announced later) to the winners of Sections 1, 2 and 3.

Judging will be carried out over the week-end of Saturday and Sunday, November 7 and 8, and awards will be announced in the issue of "The Link" of November 11.

Subject to the approval of the prize winners, public inspection of the gardens of the winners and runners-up will be arranged by the Association.

The Association reserves the right not to award a prize in any section where this is not considered justified.

The judges will be asked to take into consideration the general neatness of the area entered, and the suitability of its garden layout for the surroundings.

BALMAIN CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUP

Balmain Children's playgroup, formed about two months ago, now has 35 families with an average attendance of 18 each Tuesday and Thursday morning.

The organisers are considering holding another morning session if there is sufficient demand.

The playgroup is not an organised pre-school, but a meeting of children and their parents to share a variety of equipment and play material, including paint, sand, dough and various toys and puzzles.

The children, who are from a few months to four years of age, are learning to mix with one another and enjoy activities not always possible in their own homes.

At the same time their mothers are holding a discussion group on a wide range of topics.

The playgroup is completely independent and self-supporting, all activities and equipment being financed by the families involved.

Parents concerned are grateful to the Rev. David Williams and St. John's Church Council for use of the land, and to the young men and women of Rotaract who have devoted several Saturdays to rejuvenating the premises.

Sister Johns, of the Baby Health Centre, was a guest at a recent meeting of parents of the playgroup.

Further information may be obtained from her, or by ringing 82-1050 or 82-4338.

CODOCKS FOOTBALL

The 1970 season for Codoocks Football Club ended on a rather sad note, both Club teams losing their semi-finals.

C grade lost to Denistone, 5-16, and D grade lost to Glebe Youth 2-9.

The opposition was found to be too good on the day.

The Club wishes to thank all players, officials, coaches and supporters, and everyone else who assisted the Club during 1970.

Mr. W. F. Pinerua, Hospital President, Dies

Balmain lost one of its best-known and most respected citizens last Thursday with the death of Mr. Walter F. Pinerua, President of the Balmain Hospital Board of Directors since 1961.

He failed to recover from the serious illness which had kept him in hospital for some time.

Mr Pinerua conducted a pharmacy in Darling Street, Balmain.

He was President of the N.S.W. branch of the Pharmacists' Guild for a number of years, and served on the N.S.W. Government Poisons Advisory Council.

During the war he was a member of the Pharmaceutical Section of the Commonwealth manpower authority.

His close association with Balmain Hospital began while he was managing the United Friendly Society's dispensary in Beattie St.

During the period of acute wartime shortages he gave invaluable assistance in supplying the hospital with pharmaceuticals, and with advice regarding their use.

During his period as President, about $400,000 was spent in improvements at the hospital.

A "Balmain boy" all his life, he earned the title of "The pensioner's friend".

He was a charter member of Balmain Rotary

Club, and retained membership until his death.

Mr Pinerua lived in North Street, Balmain. He leaves a widow, Dorothy, and a son, John.

He was privately cremated at the Northern Suburbs Crematorium last Friday. The regard in which he was held was shown by the presence of 60 or 70 people at the unadvertised funeral service.

In his address, the Rev. David Williams, of St. John's, Birchgrove, said that while Mr Pinerua might not be remembered for any great oratory, he would be remembered for his many deeds of kindness to the citizens of Balmain.

BALMAIN HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

Balmain Hospital Auxiliary's special meeting in Fidden Hall called to make arrangements for the forthcoming fete, commenced with a break of silence in respect for the late Mr W. F. Pinerua, President of the Hospital Board.

Stalls were allotted, and arrangements made for the collection of goods.

Mr L. Dunkley kindly offered to collect all parcels.

Numerous helpers are required for the chocolate wheels in the future. Those who can spare an hour or two on Saturday mornings are asked to ring Mrs Wakefield, on 82-2990.

The chocolate wheel is a splendid source of revenue.

Dates to remember: Fete at the hospital, September 26. Annual ball, October 10, at Police Boys' Club hall, Glebe (tickets now available).

The Auxiliary's next meeting will be held on August 13, at 8 p.m.

Column NINE

Gardening Contest

The nature of the garden competition announced by The Balmain Association should appeal to residents because it is aimed at the particular conditions existing in this district.

There is, of course, a sufficient number of gardens of various sizes to warrant the conduct of a competition among them.

The incentive aroused by a competition, with the hope of the prize of public acclaim, is enough to arouse or re-arouse in many people the desire to get their hands into the soil.

And the effect some dedicated work with spade, hoe and sprinkler can have on your neighbours can at times be magical.

It can set a whole street along a brightening-up path, which improves both the appearance and the value of all properties involved.

We like particularly the idea behind Sections 2 and 3—paved courtyards and miscellaneous—as they cater for special inner-suburban conditions.

Pots can be an effective substitute at times for garden plots, while window boxes, balcony gardens, etc., can (as is dramatically seen in Europe) transform a whole neighbourhood.

Specialty also do we like inclusion of laneways and surface easements in Section 3. This could produce major self-help to cater for periodic Council indifference.

Finally, the competition judges will naturally keep in mind the general appearance of garden surrounds.

You can't expect to win a prize for a garden if the house itself is in bad repair or seriously in need of a paint brush.

Altogether the result could be a more attractive Balmain peninsula. We sincerely hope that this will be so.

COUNCIL NEWS IN BRIEF

MARINA IN IRON COVE

The Maritime Services Board sought Leichhardt Council's views on an application for construction of a commercial marina in Iron Cove at 3/5 Tilba Avenue, Balmain.

The application was strongly opposed by the Council's Town Planner, Mr A. Kenna.

However, the majority of Council favoured a motion by Aldermen Casey and Heffernan (Rozelle ward) to defer the matter for 28 days for inspection.

HARBOUR FORESHORE

In reply to a question by Ald. N. Origlass, the Deputy Engineer and Town Planner, Mr A. Kenna, said correspondence had now been received from the State Planning Authority about the matter of foreshore preservation in respect of the former Council-owned land at Balmain East.

(The S.P.A. had previously told Council it considered the proposed development of the land should be amended to provide for more harbour foreshore preservation; that it intended to purchase one portion of the land to extend Thornton Park; and that Council should take action to close the bottom end of Lookes Avenue and extend the foreshore reserve.)

Mr Kenna said the S.P.A. had now written to the Council advising that it was no longer interested in proceeding with its proposal for public park extension or for providing a 66 ft setback from the water.

COMPLAINTS OF NOISE

Council received a petition from 23 residents of the Darling-Terry-Norman Streets area complaining of noise said to be emanating from a factory at 561 Darling Street, Rozelle (carpentry and shop fittings).

An investigating inspector reported that occupants of three addresses stated that noise from the factory did not worry them.

Chief Health Surveyor and Building Inspector, Mr R. S. Williams, reported that there was no doubt that once building operations commenced, noise emissions would be contained by the nature of the alterations to the building.

Council deferred the matter pending completion of the building additions and alterations.

TYPE OF FOOTPATH

In accordance with Council's policy, the Engineer, Mr G. A. Wilson, recommended that the 12 ft wide footpath on the southern side of Darling Street between Jacques and Elliott Streets be reconstructed in concrete 6 ft wide, with a 6 ft kerbside grassed verge.

Mr Wilson considered 6 ft of concrete to be adequate for pedestrian traffic there, and that the verge would render the street more attractive.

This was supported by Aldermen Wyner and Origlass (Balmain ward), but negated by a motion from Aldermen Casey and Heffernan (Rozelle ward) calling for a report on the cost of a full 12 ft wide footpath.

MOVES TO CUT NOISE AT TWO TERMINALS

Progress of moves to reduce noise from the White Bay and Mort Bay container terminals was reported and discussed at two meetings in Leichhardt and Balmain. The greatest relief would seem to be likely from promises of action at Mort Bay.

The two meetings were of Leichhardt Council (where a report of its Noise Abatement Advisory Panel was received), and of the public meeting at Balmain Town Hall arranged by Ald. N. Origlass between local residents, terminal union delegates and others.

At the Council meeting, the Noise Abatement Advisory Panel presented a report of its meeting on July 6, which was attended by Captain R. Menzies and Mr J. Weihaan, of the Australian National Line, and Sergeants Jones and Dunne, of the Police Department.

Cold Units

Captain Menzies advised that it was arranging a solution of the problem of noise from the refrigerated units stored in the A.N.L. container terminal at Mort Bay.

The temperature of the units would be reduced below existing levels before being sent to the terminal, and at the terminal the units would be switched off between 8 p.m. and 7 a.m.

If they were brought to the terminal three or four days before shipment, he was confident the desired minimum temperature would be restored after each night's switching off.

Sergeant Jones agreed that vehicular noise outside the terminal had increased over the past 12 months or so, but declared, "You can't stop industry".

R.S.L. Soccer

Balmain-Rozelle Soccer Football Club teams had a successful weekend of matches.

Seven teams won, and two lost.

Wins were recorded by Under 6, U/7, U/9, U/10 A, U/10 C, U/14 and All Ages. The teams to lose were U/8 and U/11.

Noise, he said, sounded a lot worse in narrow streets, such as Mort and Church Streets, than it did in wider ones.

"Asked if the police had inquired into the possibility of one-way traffic in and out of the Mort Bay area, Sergt. Dunne said the police had no reason to make such a recommendation.

Captain Menzies reported that ship exhaust fans, formerly left on all night to disperse the fork lift fumes, were now being switched off, the doors left open and a watchman kept on duty.

The fork lifts had been fully overhauled and their brakes relined. There should be no brake squealing with proper maintenance.

Mr Weihaan and Ald. Origlass were involved in a discussion about the suitability of Balmain streets for heavy container traffic.

Mr Weihaan disputed the aldermen's statement that the local streets had not been designed for heavy traffic. The streets were constructed, he said, to stand heavy loads.

Ald. Origlass repeated that his point was still valid that the whole set-up was not designed for heavy traffic.

Council adopted the panel's report, and rejected an amendment by Ald. Origlass seeking an addendum to the effect that A.N.L. be asked for a precis of its findings against bargaining operations, and that the residents who had signed the petition protesting against the noise of the refrigerated units be advised of the A.N.L. proposals.

BALMAIN MEETING

The public meeting at Balmain Town Hall had been called by Ald. Origlass in terms of the resolution at the recent meeting between local residents and White Bay container terminal union delegates.

It was only a small meeting, but it warmly received expressions of co-operation and advice from three union delegates in attendance.

Protest

Mr Roger Degen, M.L.A. for Balmain, told the meeting that the interests and welfare of Balmain people had been ignored by the State Government and the Maritime Services Board.

He said he had repeatedly protested to the Government about the development of White Bay and Mort Bay as container terminals.

The Government had spent $650,000 on buildings and rail facilities, but had taken no measures to protect residents from undue noise and traffic problems.

Mr Degen said the Government had done everything possible to help shipping companies, and nothing to help residents.

The Labor Party had decided that, as a matter of policy, the M.S.B. should have greater regard to the effect of port development on residential areas.

The next Labor Government would reconstruct the Board and make it directly responsible to a Cabinet Minister, and provide an avenue for residents' appeal against Board decisions.

Ald. Origlass told the meeting that Captain Gray, of Seatainer Terminals Ltd., had attended the recent Noise Abatement Advisory Panel meeting, and had promised alleviating action.

Answering the specific complaints raised by Ald. Origlass, Captain Gray promised action to muffle machinery noises, and to reduce noise from ships, crane bells and sirens.

Capt. Gray said he expected some 75% of the containers would be moved by rail, that train

Ald. Origlass told the Balmain meeting that the Railways Department had advised that instructions were given to the staff concerned to keep noise within reasonable limits.

Through Mr Cope, M.H.R. for Sydney, the Minister for Shipping and Transport (Mr Sinclair) had promised to look into the matters raised by Ald. Origlass and write again at the earliest possible opportunity.

Mr Cope, who apologised for non-attendance because of a prior engagement, said his personal view was that every possible means should be taken to eliminate the noise nuisance to residents living close to the White Bay terminal.

Officials of Lilyfield A.L.P. branch attended, and expressed support.

Leichhardt Council was not represented by aldermen of wards other than Balmain.

Some 15 speakers contributed to the discussion, including Ald. I. Wyner (Balmain), who gave an informative address.

The meeting asked Mr R. Degen, M.L.A., to seek re-angling from residential streets of the powerful mercury vapour terminal lamps.

It also authorised Ald. Origlass to call a further meeting after resumption of work at White Bay (where a strike was then in progress), if his survey of residents' views on the noise situation warranted it.

The union delegates present were asked to set down their findings on the efficacy of management noise-amelioration measures.

Town Hall Remodelling

The people should be kept in the know in regard to any big schemes being cooked up by their Council.

They should have the opportunity to express an opinion before it's too late, especially in regard to big expenditures not mentioned in the estimates.

Then the people would feel involved in participatory democracy — not virtually excluded, as is now the case.

Since Leichhardt Council won't tell the people what's in the wind, the responsibility falls again on the Balmain aldermen.

Hurried consideration is now being given to alterations and additions to Leichhardt Town Hall, including provision of a prestige Mayor's chamber, at a cost around $250,000.

As well, a baby health centre/public library is to be established at 4 Marion Street, Leichhardt, at a cost of about $115,000.

No provision was made in this year's estimates for these purposes.

The risk in spending a lot of money on Leichhardt Town Hall is that no one knows how soon the present Leichhardt Municipality may come to an end.

The State Labor Party is pledged to expand the City of Sydney boundaries, and the Glebe A.L.P. aldermen declare their determination to get the Glebe back into the City Council area.

There's a State election due by March next, and it would be much wiser to await the result. In the meantime the indoor staff could spread out into part of the main hall, and functions needing a bigger hall could be held at Balmain.

The reason for Council's anxiety to halt its own successful housing development project at Balmain East and to sell the land for some $267,000 now seems easier to understand.

—Ald. N. Origlass
Church St. Property

"Column Nine" (July 15), referring to the Church Street property which the Labor majority on Leichhardt Council have been so keen to permit in the face of every kind of opposition, states:

"Use of this site for major home development was urged precisely two years ago by 'The Link', without support from anybody (including local aldermen or Mr Degen, Member for Balmain)".

At a special meeting of Leichhardt Council on June 4, 1968, we submitted a motion which turned out to be one of the ultra-rare motions to escape the blunderbuss opposition vote of non-Balmain majority.

YOUR OPINIONS

Council records will disclose that our motion read: "That as the area represents a comparatively narrow industrial intrusion into an otherwise closely settled residential district, it should be zoned '2 (a) Residential A' in character with the zoning of its surroundings".

This was not the beginning of the endeavour by Ald. Origlass and myself to have the area correctly zoned.

Council's records will show that it was the Balmain aldermen (Origlass and Wyner) who were able to achieve the Council decision to rezone this land in 1959-1960.

A letter dated Feb. 26, 1960, from the then Cumberland County Council to the Department of Local Government, included a report from the Chief County Planner (Mr R. D. L. Fraser) which inter alia stated:

"Leichhardt Council's proposal was based on the fact that the subject land is either vacant or occupied by dwellings, and adjoins similarly developed land, which had previously been suspended.

"Furthermore, the closing down of Morts Dock indicated that waterfront industries were declining, consequently there may not be any future movement of new waterfront industries into the zone, and that the time was opportune to re-zone the areas not already developed industrially.

"Subsequently the local Council, through the Minister for Lands, petitioned the Minister for Local Government to have the whole of the land owned by Morts Dock and Engineering Co. at Balmain suspended from the scheme with a view to its re-development under a high-density housing project".

You will appreciate that our efforts on that occasion came to nought mainly due to the completely unsympathetic attitude adopted by the various Government Departments involved.

It was as the result of the Government of the day refusing to have anything to do with our proposal for housing development, and no one coming forward to purchase the property (at its very high price) for this purpose, that the area was zoned in conformity with the Government's wishes, as waterfront industrial.

Nevertheless the Church Street property stuck out like a sore thumb, and we in Balmain were able to achieve this area being re-zoned in the Local Plan for residential purposes.

It remains now for the present State Government to concur in what the Council has now adopted.

—Ald. I. Wyner.

PROTECT YOUR CHILD'S EYES

Many avoidable eye injuries occur to children every year, according to Dr. W. Lopez, Deputy Medical Officer of Health. Most of these can be prevented by safety education of the children and by adult supervision of games and toys, he says.

Dr Lopez gave the following advice to parents:

It is important for parents of small children to choose safe toys. Playthings with sharp points such as bows and arrows are dangerous in the hands of small children.

Keep sharp-pointed needles and scissors out of reach of children.

With the older children it is important to help them to understand how to handle sharp objects with care.

Continue to warn them of the danger to the eyes that can result from B.B. guns, bows and arrows, sharp sticks and stones.

Fireworks

Fireworks are of special danger to children's eyes. On many cracker nights some unfortunate child loses the sight of an eye due to carelessness with fireworks.

The answer is supervision of children when they are igniting fireworks.

Many substances about the home are dangerous to the eyes. Some of those most harmful if accidentally put into a child's eyes are detergents or liquid soaps, caustic cleaning fluids, degreasing compounds, cement, plaster and lime, the glues used for making models, hair lacquers and any carelessly handled pressure pack spray.

Children can and do suffer burns to their eyes from cigarettes held at a level that is dangerous to a child.

When travelling with children in a car it is wise to ensure that they are sitting down, preferably in the back seat. If they sit in the front, see that they have the safety belt well secured around them.

Without this precaution, a sudden stop can damage eyes and disfigure faces.

Some Rules

Here are some general rules to safeguard eyes

CLOTHING APPEAL

The Lord Mayor of Sydney, Ald. L. E. McDermott, has thanked "The Link" for the support given to his Community Clothing Appeal.

The target for the appeal was 100 tons of clothing. The Smith Family received 85 tons at their Crown Street headquarters in June.

The Family's stocks are low, so further donations are badly needed.

These will enable them to continue helping those in need during the remaining months of winter.

from injury by accident:

Keep sharp instruments out of the way—supervise play as much as possible—in case of an eye accident cover the eye with a clean pad and consult a doctor.

Good lighting will help a child to read.

Television will not hurt normal eyes, but it should not be allowed to divert the children entirely from reading and other visual activity.

Make sure that there is always a well lit place away from the television screen where a book can be read.

The eyes should be protected from long exposure to direct light, either sun or artificial.

BOYS' CLUB

Balmain Police - Citizens Boys' Club's D grade Rugby League team was beaten by Leichhardt Wanderers 10-2 in the semi-final of the competition, played at Birchgrove Oval last Sunday.

As minor premiers the team has the right to challenge the winners of next week's final to play a grand final.

E grade beat Denistone 20-0. The team has qualified for the semi-finals and will meet Ermington - Rydalmere next Saturday.

Soccer: Under 6 were eliminated 0-2 by Concord in a knockout competition at St. Columba's Ground. Leichhardt U/7 drew with Apia 0-0, and remain undefeated, having had only one goal scored against them. U/8 had its first defeat of the season, 0-1, by Abbotsford, and is now running second in the competition.

Boxing: Club boxers, under instructor Gordon Lambert, visited Newtown Club for an inter-club tournament. Ross Charter won his bout, Matthew Hill was narrowly outpointed, and Shane and Alan Hill were not matched.

Housie: The Ladies' Auxiliary will hold its bi-weekly housie afternoon this Saturday, commencing 1.30 p.m. Good prizes; afternoon tea available.

Cricket: With the approach of the new season the Club requires persons to act as coaches and managers for the cricket teams, playing Saturday mornings. Persons interested are asked to ring 82-2234 after 5 p.m. weekdays.

PANTHERS DOWN THE TIGERS IN DULL GAME

On Sunday at Leichhardt Oval Penrith's much travelled Panthers inflicted yet another defeat upon Balmain by the narrow margin of 16-14, thanks to a last-minute field goal by ex-Tiger Laurie Fagan.

The game was scrappy and at no stage reached the expected heights of a Balmain-Penrith encounter.

Balmain had numerous chances to win, but usually managed to throw them away with loose passing of dropped balls.

With this defeat positively ending any hope of a semi-final berth, I hope the selectors give some of the young brigade a chance during the last four matches.

In view of the expected retirement of both Len Killeen and Dave Bolton at the end of the season, the last games offer Balmain a wonderful opportunity to blood some of the younger hopefuls.

In the scrum department Peter Boulton came out square. And he had his usual busy day in the open play.

Gary Leo and Barry McTaggart got through a lot of work and tackled strongly.

Joe Walsh and Jack Spencer ran well with the ball and always tried hard in defence, whilst Alan Fitzgibbon, who switched from the second row to lock when Spencer was injured, acquitted himself quite well.

In the backs Terry Parker did a lot of tackling, but was guilty of missing a few tackles.

from the TIGERS CORNER

By "Black Eye"

Paul Cross backed up a very good reserve grade game with a try resulting from good anticipation and plenty of speed.

He scored two tries in the reserves, and proved again what a good try scorer he is when given the chance.

Awards

Bennett's Electrical Best and Fairest competition for a Whirlpool refrigerator (on display at the Balmain Leagues Club) has reached a very interesting stage.

Any one of four players has the chance to win.

Results are:

First grade: 3. L. Killeen. 2. K. Outten. 1. R. Smithies. Reserves: 3. H. Browne. 2. P. Carey. 1. P. Fardell. Thirds: 3. A. Tilbrook. 2. R. Nagle. 1. V. Querin.

Progress points at this stage are:

First grade: 16. R. Smithies. 14. J. Spencer. G. Leo. 11. G. Connell. 10. P. Boulton.

Reserves: 17. G. Fryer. 14. P. Fardell. 13. E. Clingan. 11. A. Fitzgibbon.

Third grade: 14. P. Carey. 11. J. Schmitzer. 9. R. Leis. K. Hanne-man. 7. S. Satterley.

Next week-end Balmain supporters make the unenviable trek to Cumberland Oval for their clash with Parramatta. This game could be quite entertaining, if Parramatta's win over Easts is any form guide.
